

Kelly M. Cleary is Deputy General Counsel and Chief Legal Officer for the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). In this role, she serves as the principal legal counselor and advisor to the CMS Administrator on all matters concerning the interpretation, application, and enforcement of the laws, rules and regulations administered by CMS.

Prior to joining HHS, she was an attorney in private practice and represented a broad-based group of clients in the health care industry, assisting these clients in matters related to Medicare and Medicaid reimbursement; fraud and abuse; internal and governmental investigations; and state, federal and international privacy laws. Prior to private practice, Ms. Cleary clerked for the Honorable Claude M. Hilton in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia. She received her J.D. from The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law, where she served as Editor-in-chief of the Catholic University Law Review. She earned a B.A. degree in Biology from Colgate University.